

Table with columns: Division, Killed, Wounded. Rows: First Division, Second Division, Total, Grand Total.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Reports from the Various Camp Hospitals.

From Our Own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 2, 1862.

I am indebted to Dr. LETTERMAN, Medical Director of the Army, for the accompanying reports from various Surgeons, of deaths which have occurred at the hospitals since the battle of Antietam.

Deaths at the Hoffman House Hospital up to Sept. 29.

- List of names and regiments buried at Hoffman House Hospital, including Lt. Voelker, Co. D, 20th N. Y., and others.

Deaths at Sedgwick's Division Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at Sedgwick's Division Hospital, including Lieut. Wilson, Co. B, 71st Pennsylvania.

Deaths at Paffenburgh Hospital, W. H. Turford, Sen., in charge.

- List of names and regiments buried at Paffenburgh Hospital, including F. A. White, Co. I, 3d Wis., and others.

Deaths at H. Showman's House.

- List of names and regiments buried at H. Showman's House, including Corp. Wm. J. Bristow, Co. D, 44th Penn.

Deaths at the White House Hospital (Mr. Line's House) from September 17th to 29th, inclusive.

- List of names and regiments buried at the White House Hospital, including Jas. Stewart, Bucktail Regiment.

Names of Rebel Officers and Men who Died in the same Hospital.

- List of names and regiments of rebel officers and men who died in the hospital, including Jas. E. Addick, 13th Ala.

Deaths in the Stone-House Hospital, under charge of Dr. Chaddock.

- List of names and regiments buried at the Stone-House Hospital, including George Palmer, 15th Mich.

Eleven others, who were, mortally wounded, died, and were buried during the battle, whose names could not be ascertained.

Died at the Hospital in Sharpsburgh.

- List of names and regiments buried at the Hospital in Sharpsburgh, including Corp. John Shaffer, Co. B, 11th Pennsylvania.

Brown-Ston Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at Brown-Ston Hospital, including Geo. Garvey, Co. K, 104th New-York.

Town Hall Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at Town Hall Hospital, including Capt. David Myers, Co. C, 14th N. Y. S. M.

Brick Store Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at Brick Store Hospital, including Edw. Graves, Co. K, 1st U. S. Artillery.

School-House Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at School-House Hospital, including Corp. Wm. C. Robinson, Co. T, R. G. Co.

BURIALS OF MEN IN BANKS' ARMY CORPS.

List of those buried at Paffenburgh Hospital, near Sharpsburgh, up to Thursday, Sept. 25, First Division, in charge of A. Chaput, Medical Director.

- List of names and regiments buried at Paffenburgh Hospital, including T. A. White, Co. I, 3d Wis., and others.

Deaths in Second Division, Banks' Corps, who were buried at Smoketown General Hospital.

- List of names and regiments buried at Smoketown General Hospital, including Corp. E. W. Goodsell, Co. C, 60th N. Y.

Deaths in the Twenty-Eighth Pennsylvania, who were buried at Hoffman's Farm, at the Hospital near Ward's Springs, under charge of Dr. H. E. Goodman.

- List of names and regiments buried at Hoffman's Farm, including Capt. P. F. Laws, Co. C, 28th Penn.

Killed and buried on the battle-field, 35.

FRENCH'S DIVISION.

Deaths Reported in the One Hundred and Thirtieth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 101st Penna. Vol., including C. Shuttas, Co. B, Sept. 18.

Deaths in the Twentieth Connecticut Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 20th Conn. Vol., including John Abber, Sept. 24.

Deaths in the Fourteenth Regiment Indiana Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 14th Ind. Vol., including Lieut. E. Lallengen, Sept. 29.

Deaths in the Seventh Virginia Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 7th Va. Vol., including Leymon Lant, Sept. 20.

Deaths in the One Hundred and Thirty-second Pennsylvania Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 132nd Penna. Vol., including Chas. F. Myers, Co. F, Sept. 21.

Deaths in the Fourth New-York Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 4th N.Y. Vol., including John Fischer, Sept. 20.

Deaths in the First Delaware Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 1st Del. Vol., including Barney McClusky, on battle-field.

Deaths in the One Hundred and Eighth New-York Volunteers.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 108th N.Y. Vol., including Maj. G. B. Force, killed.

Deaths in the CONFEDERATE PRISONERS.

- List of names and regiments of Confederate prisoners, including P. W. Bosman, 8th S. Carolina.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- List of miscellaneous names, including C. Dailmann, Co. A, 4th N. Y.

Names of Union officers and privates who died at Sedgwick's Division Hospital, up to Sept. 30.

- List of names of officers and privates who died at Sedgwick's hospital, including Lieut. James Waterhouse, 1st Texas.

Names found on a loose memorandum—Uncertain whether as wounded or dead.

- List of names found on a memorandum, including Lieut.-Col. G. M. Bumford, 42d New-York.

Died or buried from Hospitals of the 9th Army Corps.

- List of names and regiments buried in the 9th Army Corps hospitals, including Surgeon Warner's Hospital.

Reported by W. W. HOLMES, Medical Director 9th Army Corps.

KILLED AND WOUNDED IN BANKS' CORPS.

The following is the official report:

Table with columns: Brigade, Killed, Wounded. Rows: First Brigade, Second Brigade, Third Brigade, Grand Total First Division, Grand Total Second Division.